DAVID SELBY PRESENTS

THIS MONTH'S SUPER- DREAM!

TREMBLIN' TOADSTOOLS!! Dashing DAVID SELBY is responsible for making ELAINE LAKES the happiest girl in Danville, Kentucky! David personally selected Elaine as the Super-Dream queen of the month!

David was so moved by Elaine's lovely letter that he felt he just had to get her a super special Super-Dream gift! David selected a groovy portable tape recorder — one that will fit right into Elaine's purse so she can carry it anywhere — and filled one side of the tape with his very own voice! David sat down and recorded a personal, one-of-a-kind recording to Elaine that she'll be able to play again and again. David told her quite a few DS secrets — and answered each and every question in her Dreamsville letter! (Just think! She'll be able to listen to David anytime she wants to!)

David also personally autographed two beautiful pictures of himself, sent along a personally autographed copy of the Philips Dark Shadows LP record, and added one of his very own Dark Shadows scripts as a special souvenir!

David added a full year's free subscription to his favorite magazines — 16 and 16 SPEC — so Elaine can learn all of the latest DS news and gossip! (Be careful not to erase that tape, Elaine — it's the only one of its kind in the whole world!)

Super-Dreams can come true — but only in the wonderful world of Dreamsville!

That just goes to show you, kiddies—Dreamsville doesn't let you down! So keep those letters comin'!!

KATHY HUDSON of Midland, Michigan, is wild about the entire cast of ABC-TV's Dark Shadows—but her favorite DS-er of all is DAVID HENESY! Kathy asked for "anything David wants to give me"—and David ran wild on a personal shopping spree just for Kathy! David sent a kooky pair of hand-painted "slit" sunglasses—with the flag of England on each lens (the very same sunglasses he's wearing in the picture). David also sent along a mod wristwatch (so that Kathy won't be late to see Dark Shadows), a personally autographed BIG picture of himself, a handwritten personal note—and an "extra-special" surprise gift that'll knock Kathy for a lovely loop! Darlin' David added a full year's free subscription to 16 and 16 SPEC as a bonus prize! Dreamsville triumphs!

"The Girls WE Love"

DAVID SELBY: "The girls I love are many. Before you raise your eyebrows in surprise, let me explain. I suppose there's a sort of 'mystical' streak in me for, though on the one hand I believe in one long and lasting love in a lifetime, on the other hand I also just as sincerely believe that I can truly love and exchange what I call 'love vibrations' with many, many girls. I'll try to give you some examples.

"One day when I was leaving our Dark Shadows studio on West 53rd Street in Manhattan there was quite a crowd of DS fans waiting outside—mostly girls. The girls were excited and eager and, though I was running late in my schedule, I stopped to chat with them and give out autographs for a few minutes—for they had been waiting for a long time. I realized that this 'mass of people' was really a lot of very individual young ladies. Each girl was somehow different from the other. Each was unique, lovely and exciting in her own way. One little girl was from out of town and she (along with her folks) had travelled many miles to come to the studio in hopes of meeting one of us DS regulars. She had short, curly red hair and an ample sprinkling of freckles across her nose. Her grin clearly displayed a set of brand new braces—but she was so real, so vital, so much herself that I instantly loved her. Another girl who had long dark hair and was sort of chubby seemed to be on the bashful side. She stood in the background and finally I had to go over and ask her name and a little about herself. As we spoke, she suddenly blossomed. Within moments she looked like a different person—alive, warm and unafraid. And, once again, I 'fell in love.'

"I could tell you many such stories as these. I could tell you about a girl I call 'The Sparrow,' whom I occasionally spot when I leave the studio. She always seems to be hiding behind a telephone pole across the street. On day I came out and it was raining—and there she was. I deliberately walked across and tried to start a conversation with her, for she had shyly waved at me a couple of times. But 'The Sparrow' blinked, lowered her head and 'flew' away! I sighed and thought, One day, one day she'll stay and talk with me awhile.

"Would you believe I also fall in love with girls I have never met? I mean, I get such beautiful, interesting and touching letters—and even the short, 'shy' letters are just as meaningful to me. It's as though when I open the envelope a 'person' actually emerges, and during the few seconds or few minutes I spend reading that girl's letter I am truly sharing 'love vibrations' with her.

"In the course of my life I have been very lucky. I have met, gone steady with and married a wonderful woman. Her name is Chip (her nickname actually, but that's what she prefers to be called) and we are blessed with a wonderful son named Todd. With Chip, I not only share the basic kind of love of a man and a woman in marriage—I also share what I call a holy and universal love. And it's that love—that strong, irrevocable, universal feeling of warmth, tenderness and care—that we all share. It's the greatest love of all. And it's that force that I receive and give out to each and every one of the 'girls I love.'"

CHRISTOPHER PENNOCK: "Want me to tell you a super top secret about boys? O.K., here goes (but please don't tell anyone else!): most boys love most girls! What I mean by that is—on Monday a fellow is absolutely sure that the only girl in the world for him will have blonde hair, blue eyes and a petite figure—then on Tuesday, he's done a total turnabout and is convinced that no girl can capture his heart unless she's tall and has naturally curly, jet black hair! Do you get the gist of it? In a strange way, none of us are ever quite satisfied with the current love of our life! Now, before you disagree, read on just a little bit more.

"The fact of the matter is that the above-mentioned 'state of love' is perfectly normal. If you, in your heart of hearts, tell the whole truth and nothin' but—it's quite likely you'll discover that one day you're capable of loving, say, a David Henesy type and the next day you find yourself deeply devoted to, say, a Jonathan Frid type. Hopefully (for us two guys on these two pages, that is), by Wednesday or Thursday you'll find space in your heart for a David Selby or a Christopher Pennock type!

"Actually, there's a profound law of nature behind this seemingly willy-nilly way of loving. None of us is a one-dimensional person. Just as none of us would want to eat one food, like bread and butter, every day, week after week, year after year—none of us is beholden to love just one person, especially when you're young. The reason nature has given each individual many dimensions and many appetites is so that girl (or boy) can fully learn exactly who the appropriate one for her (or him) is before they finally settle down. Which leads up to why I love the girls I love—and why I am the kind of guy I am.

"My days of being 'absolutely positive' that I could only love one type of girl are over. I've discovered by experience and experimenting that the unexpected is the most likely to make me lose my head and fall really and truly in love. After playing the field and being a 'lover boy' for a number of years, I am finally getting around to zeroing in on 'the girl I love.' She is bound to be utterly different from all of the girls I used to daydream about. Since I was always wild for blondes and brunettes, she'll probably turn out to be a redhead. Since I always dug petite or tall, thin girls, she'll probably turn out to be medium-sized. Since I always dreamed of the mysterious, silent type, she'll probably turn out to be warm, friendly and a good conversationalist. Since I always 'yearned' for an exotic 'one of a kind' girl, she'll probably turn out to be all-American and thoroughly average.

"Whatever the future holds for me from this moment on, the only thing I'm really sure of is that I no longer want a 'fantasy' girl. The girl I love will be the real thing. And I hope she'll be coming my way soon—very soon." the side of the road!

We waited almost half an hour, just sitting in the car. I mean we didn't actually know what to do! We couldn't change the tire ourselves so finally we started waving at the cars that passed by now and then to attract someone's attention. But no one saw us or they were in too big a hurry themselves to take the time to lend us a hand!

STARTED WALKING

More time passed, and we decided we would have to call home for help! We got out of the car, holding old newspapers over our heads, and started walking through the drenching rain in hopes of finding a telephone booth! Well, we hadn't gone very far but we were soaked and ready to turn back. We were almost in tears and I hated New York even more!

Then suddenly this car stopped alongside of us and a very beautiful lady rolled down the window on the passenger side. She asked us where we were going in such weather!

I started to explain about the flat when the driver got out of the car and opened the back door for us. I recognized him immediately and with my mouth hanging open nudged Kathy, but she had recognized him too and was just as stunned as I! He told us to come in out of the rain and asked where we had left our car!

CALL ME DAVID

A few minutes later we had arrived back at our car and he got out and fixed that flat all by himself in the drenching rain! We watched him in disbelief from the comfort of his car and the lady, who was his wife Chip, poured us some steaming hot chocolate from a thermos bottle and offered us some cookies. She told us they too had got caught in the rain only they had been on a picnic!

Soon the flat tire was changed and we got back into our car smiling and happy. We thanked Chip for the food and tried to thank the man for his help, but we were both at a loss for words! Finally I managed to stammer it out clearly and politely used his last name! But you know what he said? "Call me David, ok?"

I'll never forget that or the wonderful way in which he took time to help us when so many others had passed us by! I don't hate New York anymore, in fact I love it and it's all because of that beautiful wife Chip and that wonderful man who had Peace and Love in his heart for two helpless girls—DAVID SELBY!

The Whole True Story of DARK SHADOWS CHAPTER 15

IN A FIT OF RAGE Adam has repeatedly struck his good friend Sam Evans until Sam has fallen to the floor unconscious. When Adam sees what he has done, he runs off into the forest — leaving Willie Loomis behind to call an ambulance.

Meanwhile, back in the old house, Julia is impatiently waiting for Barnabas. Suddenly she hears a sobbing sound coming from the cellar. She goes down the stairs and before her amazed eyes she sees the spirit of Josette Collins — crying. As Julia appears, the spirit of Josette vanishes. Willie, who has run all the way back to the old house, bursts in to tell Julia what has happened to Sam Evans. Then Julia tells Willie about seeing the vision of Josette. Suddenly she remembers something! And then she tells Willie that Josette only cares for Barnabas and would only cry for him — therefore, Barnabas must be in danger!

Julia decides to have Willie break through the wall in the cellar. Willie gets some tools and starts chopping away at the bricks. Suddenly a sharp pain runs through his body and he cries out. He tells Julia about the pains. All at once Reverend Trask appears in the cellar. He commands Willie to stop chopping away or, he tells him, "... you'll die!"

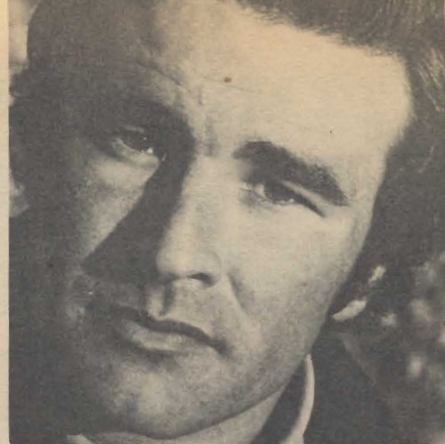

"Your job isn't to kill Barnabas," Julia exclaims. "Your job is to destroy Angelique!" And then Julia tells Trask the whole story of Cassandra and Angelique — who really are one person. Smiling, Trask disappears.

Willie and Julia continue hammering away at the wall. Finally, they make an opening in it and behind it they discover Barnabas — unconscious! They take him upstairs and revive him.

ELIZABETH'S "DEATH"

At the main house, Cassandra is still up to her evil tricks. She convinces Elizabeth that her real name is Naomi Collins and then takes her to the Eagle Hill Cemetery and shows her Naomi Collins' tomb! She tells Elizabeth that her coffin is lying inside the great tomb and that soon she will be back in her coffin again. Elizabeth runs from the mausoleum as Cassandra laughs—and suddenly Reverend Trask appears. He tells Cassandra that she will die as a witch dies and he throws a torch at her. Trask vanishes as Cassandra begins burning. The flames grow higher and higher, but at the last minute Cassandra starts reciting a magical chant and saves herself. She quickly goes back to Collinwood, where she learns that Sam Evans is in the hospital. Cassandra decides to visit Sam!

Why does Cassandra want to see Sam Evans? To find out why, and what she does to him, be sure to get the June issue of 16 — on sale April 23!!

DARK SHADOWS GOSSIP

Yes, that is Jerry Lacy and Marie Wallace whom you see on the Right Guard TV commercial that has been shown so often during Dark Shadows . . . Yes, David Henesy really did break his leg. It happened while he was skiing one weekend. He hit a bump and the release on one of his ski boots didn't work — so crraack went poor David's ankle! However, Dark Shadows producer Dan Curtis was undeterred. He had David's broken leg "written" right into the script by having "Jeb" jump out of the bushes and scare poor David into a fall! . . . Geoffrey Scott, the good-looking guy who plays Sky Rumson on Dark Shadows, is in his mid-20's; he is six feet and two inches tall and has dark brown hair and eyes. Though Geoff was born and raised in Hollywood, he has lived in New York City for the last two years.

Hooray — John Karlen is back on Dark Shadows! Our very own sweet "Willie Loomis" decided that he didn't like life in Los Angeles and he and his wife have moved back to New York permanently! That means you'll be seeing "Willie" and "Barnes" up to some of their "mean" old tricks on DS again! . . . Sorry 'bout that goof (in the March ish of 16) regarding Dennis Patrick's role on Dark Shadows. To keep the record straight originally Dennis played the role of "Jason McQuire" — "Paul Stoddard's" best friend — and not the role of "Burke Devlin." The role of "Burke" was played by Mitchell Ryan and later by Anthony George . . . Hope you caught Roger Davis in a Bold Ones segment and David Shelby's portrayal of Abraham Lincoln on Directions on ABC-TV mid-February . . . Don't miss Thayer David as Reverend Silas Pendrake in Cinema Center's Little Big Man . . . Flash! The DS gang are finally going to make a Dark Shadows movie!! More on that next month!!

John Karlen

DARK SHADOWS LETTERS

Welcome to Dark Shadows Letters department again! We are all so thrilled with your many letters to us. We read them all — and, sooner or later, you will find your very own answer right here in 16!

Best to you!

Jonathan Frid

Dear Michael,
I've seen you as "Bruno" and I can't decide whether I like "Bruno" or "Aristede" best — and that includes "Bruno's" combed back hairdo. Which do you prefer?

Little Rock, Ark.

Nellie Piersall

• Dear Nellie,
It's really hard to say. I think an actor likes the role he's playing at the moment best. As for "Bruno's" hair-do, I sort of like it for the character — I mean, that kind of hair style if it's "Bruno". But in real life, I still wear my hair like I did as "Aristede".

Thanks for caring,
Michael

Dear DS gang,

I read in another teen mag that David Selby and Jonathan Frid have been having terrible arguments and quarrels about each other's success. In 16, it looks like David and Jon are the best of friends. Please tell me the truth. I don't know what to believe!

Loretta Ann Cifu

Bronx, N.Y.

• Dear Loretta,

David and I are both very upset about what that magazine said. If you'll stick with 16 and 16 SPEC, you'll always find the total truth about the DS gang. Not only are David and I great, good friends — we both deeply respect each other's acting talents.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Frid

Dear Jonathan,

I have two questions to ask you. One, was that you I saw doing a vampire "spoof" with Gloria DeHaven on her ABC show Prize Movie? My next question is a very heart-breaking one. A girl friend told me that you are steady-dating with Nancy Barrett. If so, are you serious? I'm tired of hearing stars claim they aren't going steady and then suddenly you find out they are — or worse — they get married. Please tell me the truth.

Teri Smyth

Long Island City, N.Y.

• Dear Teri,

Yes, indeed, that was me doing a vampire "spoof" with Gloria DeHaven at intermission on Prize Movie. No, indeed, Nancy Barrett and I are not dating — steadily or otherwise. Nancy is a good friend — as all of us are at Dark Shadows — but there's absolutely no truth to the rumor that your friend is spreading.

Best always,
Jonathan Frid

PERSONAL THANK YOU'S:

FAN CLUBS

• Since so many readers wish to join or start fan clubs, here is a list of the national fan clubs of some of the top stars. A few stars have two (sometimes more) national clubs, and in due time we will list these. We will also list local chapters from time to time, and we suggest that fans in local areas contact local club presidents about joining

To start your own club, or to join a club in your area, write to any of the following national fan clubs for information.

ENCLOSE A SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE FOR A REPLY.

If you wish your fan club to be listed, send complete data — name, address and so on — to FAN CLUB DEPARTMENT, 16

When you write to any of these fan clubs, be sure to put "I Am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.

IS DAVID HENESY your favorite Teen King? Is he the one guy of them all who makes your heart skip a beat every time you see him? Have you ever wondered what kind of girl he's looking for? Well, here's your chance to find out! Get out a pen or pencil and carefully read David Henesy's Love Test—then go back and truthfully check Yes or No to each and every question!!

If you accidentally ran into David Henesy on the street and he looked at you and smiled, would you stand still and just stare at him?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you smile back, walk over and ask him if you could introduce yourself?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you didn't know David and you wrote him a letter, would it be filled with requests for things you want from him (like lots of pictures—and greetings to you from the rest of the DS gang)?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or, instead, would you write David a letter telling him a lot about yourself and the place where you come from?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you got David on the phone (at the studio or at his home), would you giggle and tell him you want him to "... talk to my girl friend"?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you tell him a bit about yourself and ask him pertinent questions about himself—not about Dark Shadows?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you knew David and you were out on a date with him, and a friend or a fan came over and started talking to David—would you give the newcomer an icy look?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you listen attentively to his (or her) questions and David's response — and smile in a warm, friendly manner?

YES ☐ NO ☐

On a date with David, would you show him your independent, self-sufficient side by opening doors for yourself, seating yourself in a restaurant and putting on your coat without his help?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you, instead, tactfully let him do these things?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If David called and said that he was coming over to pick you up, would you hurriedly tease your hair up and put on lots of make-up?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you comb and brush your hair in a natural hair style and wear only a tiny bit of powder and lip gloss?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you were dating David regularly for awhile, would you eliminate the usual pleases, thank you's, etc. from your conversation?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you, no matter how long you and David went together, always be on your very best "party type manners" behavior?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If David turned up wearing something you really dug, would you tell him so?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you keep it to yourself, taking it for granted that he understood that you dug his outfit?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you were David's girl friend and he had to go away for awhile, would you expect him to write to you once or twice a week?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Or would you be satisfied if he just phoned you from time to time until he returned?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you had been going with David for a long time and you liked him a lot, would you tell him so?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you told David that you liked him a lot, would you expect him to tell you, in return, exactly how he feels about you?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Well, there you have it! Whatever you do, DON'T THROW THIS LOVE TEST AWAY!! David's very own answers will appear in the June issue of 16—on sale April 23! Be sure to get your copy and find out how you scored in David Henesy's Personal Love Test!!
